ANOTHER AUTO IN TOWN.—W. P. Conner and Son, the lively men, received an automobile from Cincinnati last Friday night and began hauling passengers to Preston and other points. It seats four besides the "shuffler." This is enterprise.

COSTLY RUNAWAY.—While hauling gravel on the Mt. Sterling turnpike one day last week Squire Charles Myers' team ran away. The wagon was smashed and one of the mules got one of its legs broken. Squire Myers estimates his damage at $225.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET.—The October term of Circuit Court will begin Monday. The docket is made up of old common law cases 41, new common law cases 7, old equity 41, new equity 12, Commonwealth 58. One is for murder, six felony, 52 misdemeanors.

CONCERT.—There is a treat in store for the lovers of music next Friday night at the Court-house, when Mrs. Flora Ragland Hill, assisted by her pupils, will give a concert. Mrs. Hill is a gifted vocalist and it is rare that a small place like this has an opportunity to hear such a singer.

SOMEWHAT BRUISED.—J. M. Richart while driving a spirited horse on the Sharpsburg pike one day last week gave a strong pull on the lines to check the animal's rather rapid trot and the lines broke off short. As he had no control over the horse he leaped from the buggy and fell, sustaining severe bruises. The horse didn't run away, but continued his swift gait until caught by some party further on.

COLEMAN-HOFFMAN.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoffman, of Mt. Sterling, announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Louise Coleman to Robert L. Coleman to take place in the Episcopal Church Nov. 10.

JAILED.—Ben Jones and Chas. Clement, negroes of Sharpsburg neighborhood, were lodged in jail here Saturday morning to await trial at Circuit Court on charge of stealing a horse and buggy from George Jones, also of color.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.—G. F. Wycoff, of Carlisle, Democratic nominee for Presidential Elector of the Ninth district, spoke at the Court-house Saturday afternoon to a full house, including many ladies. His speech was highly pleasing to his hearers.

A LITTLE RAIN.—The drouth was strained but not broken by a rain that commenced before seven and quit before eleven o'clock Monday morning. The principal benefit was laying the dust. The temperature soon became so cool that fires were a necessity for comfort.

BIG RACES.—At the Lexington races the $21,000 Futurity will be run on October 6; the $5,000 Futurity for 2-year-olds will take place October 7; also the sensational 2:05 race between five of the greatest racers on the turf; Transylvania October 8; the 2-minute pacers October 15.

THE DROUTH.—The drouth has reached such a stage that it is just a question of how long it can be endured. Drinking and stock water are both at the vanishing point unless hauled a long distance. The washerwomen can hardly procure water for laundering. So thirst and dirt have sway. Vegetation is beyond help by rain now.

PROTRACTED MEETING CLOSED.—Elder J. E. Wilhoit held a protracted meeting at See's school-house last week, closing Sunday night with six additions to the church. Large crowds attended and good behavior was maintained throughout the meetings. Elder Wilhoit is a Christian gentleman and an indefatigable worker in the moral vineyard.

MRS. ROBERT SHIELDS' DEATH.

Mrs. Lucy B. Shields, wife of Robert Shields, died at her home on Flat Creek about 11 o'clock a. m. Monday, September 28. She gave birth to a child some weeks ago and took pneumonia, which ended fatally. The interment was made in the burial ground on the home farm about 2:30 o'clock Sept. 29, services being conducted by Elder R. M. Campbell.

Deceased was born in this county forty-one years ago last October. She was the only child of Mrs. Margaret Lewis, who died a year ago last July. Her father was David Arnold, who died in her infancy. She was married in young womanhood to Robert Shields and lived in happy union with him. They had eleven children, three being dead and eight living, all at home. The children are Thomas B., Miss John Arnold, Josie Margaret, Wick, Oscar, Lizzie Morgan, Robert and the baby unnamed.

Mrs. Shields was a most worthy lady, esteemed and loved by her neighbors and a host of friends throughout the county. Her death is a grievous affliction to her husband and children, and all who know them feel the full measure of sympathy for them in the loss of a loving and devoted wife and mother.

TRAGIC SUICIDE.—John Phelps and Bob Woodard, of Menifee county, and brothers-in-law, the latter a merchant of Frenchburg, and both well known young men, went to Jeffersonville, in Montgomery county, where it is said they obtained some whisky. On their way home they quarreled. A short distance from Woodard's home they stopped at the house of Mrs. Wm. North, Woodard's wife being there. The quarrel was renewed and Woodard drew a pistol, but which Phelps took from him and fired it, the ball entering Woodard's mouth and ranging downward. Woodard's wife seeing him fall exclaimed: "John, you have killed my husband!" Then, without a word, Phelps put the pistol to his head and sent a bullet through his brain. Death was instantaneous. Woodard is still alive.

KENTUCKY'S GREAT TROTS.—Commence at Lexington, Ky., on Tuesday, Oct. 6th, and continue for two weeks. Every day one or more of the historic stakes of Kentucky are raced, and all the horses from all sections of the country, meeting at Lexington for the first time in the year. There are nearly 700 entries in the 34 races and it will be the greatest meeting ever known. Excursion rates of one fare round trip will be in effect from all Kentucky points. The best horses, races and music in the country are the attractions. Remember the dates, Oct. 6-16, and attend.

SCHOOL OPENS.—Get your books, your pencils, your paper, your ink and your tablets ready to enter school Monday, October 6th. All will be in readiness and parents should see to it that their child or children be ready to start in the first day. It is best for the teacher and child. A word just here: We hope every child of the school age, who can, will attend school this year; it's here for them, and it's the duty of every parent and guardian to see that they are in school every day.

MUSIC AT LEXINGTON TROTS.—Music has always been one of the great attractions of the Tots at Lexington. Weber, with his famous Prize Band of America, will be at the Lexington Tots again this year, and give daily concerts before the grand stand. The Weber band is the very best band, without exception, before the American public. The meeting begins Oct. 6 and lasts through the 16th. One railroad fare for round trip.

SOLD LIQUOR AT SHARPSBURG.—Henry Wren and Pomp Smith, Sharpsburg negroes, were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Sam Jackson and charged with illicit selling of whisky. They were taken before Commissioner Wood at Mt. Sterling and held for trial in Federal Court.

COLORADO MAN HURT.—Sam Young, of color, had a gash cut over his eye Friday morning by a colt he was breaking in a cart running against a telephone pole and throwing him out.

Born, Saturday, Sept. 26, to George A. Peed and wife, a ten-pound son.—John D.

There was plenty of frost Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

A. W. BASCOM, Owingsville, Ky.

CLARK STEELE'S DEATH.—Clark Steele died of heart trouble at 10 o'clock a. m. Thursday, Sept. 24, at the home of his daughter Mrs. Joshua Fleming, near Carlisle, where he was visiting. The body was buried in the Carlisle graveyard, on upper Prickly Ash, at one o'clock p. m. Friday.

Clark Steele was born 73 years ago last March and was reared on upper Prickly Ash. He was a son of Jacob Steele and his first wife and full brother of Robt. and Geo. Steele and Mrs. Enoch Burns, all deceased. His father married the second time, his children being Cass Steele, deceased; Mrs. Pierce Goodpaster, of this town; Mrs. J. Hamilton, deceased; and Mrs. Lina Darnell, of Flat Creek.

Clark Steele's first wife was Miss Maria Moore, daughter of Harlan Moore. No children were born to them. His second wife was Miss Ellen Daugherty, daughter of John Daugherty, of Prickly Ash. She died 4 years ago Christmas. Their surviving children are Joshua, of Sangamon county, Ill.; Mrs. Maria Fleming, of near Carlisle; William, of White Oak; Curran, of upper Prickly Ash; and De Witt, of White Oak.

Clark Steele was a man of good intelligence and taught school in his early life. He was also constable for some years. He later followed the trade of house carpenter and was considered a good workman. He was a man well liked and his death is mourned by many friends. His family have much sympathy in his loss.

OBITUARY.—Under the saddest and most mysterious circumstances of this life, John Hewitt, a widely known and one of Bath county's best and most substantial citizens, died at his home near Bethel Sept. 6, 1908. He was sitting on the porch pleasantly talking. His daughters had just returned from a drive. They noticed he looked unnatural, but cheerful. He walked from there to his stock barn only a short distance away. His wife soon followed, and in a few moments the Death Angel had visited their home. He gently answered the call to be with his God. The body was immediately placed under the care of a neighbor funeral director.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday, Sept. 8, conducted by Rev. Wm. L. Milne, pastor of the Sharpsburg Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Longview Cemetery in the presence of a vast multitude of sympathizing friends. The floral tributes were beautiful.

John Hewitt was a man of great simplicity of character; was moral and strictly honest in any business in which he was engaged. He was very conscientious and did many charitable acts. He enjoyed a wide acquaintance, and his companionship and hospitality were enjoyed by all. His wife, two daughters and son whom he idolized are grief-stricken beyond expression, but God, the Judge of all earth, will be their comforter, and may they profit by the example he has set before them. This taking away is only a transportation from earth to heaven, where he can look upon the face of God.

THE RAILROAD.—Sept. 22, 1908.—Mr. T. H. Brown, Owingsville, Ky.
